COMPARISON OF ASSESSMENTS ALBERTA TOWNS 1962

At the Annual Ratepayers Meeting held on February 25th, 1963, the question of the valuation of property exempt from taxation as shown on Page 32 of the 1962 Financial Statement was raised by Mr. W. Blackie, a resident of the Town of St. Albert. Mr. Blackie stated that the exempt assessment appeared to be over 20% of the total assessment, and as this seemed to be quite high, asked if he could have a comparison with other towns. It was, therefore, moved by Mr. Blackie and seconded by Mr. Willis that -

"the Town obtain figures from other Alberta towns of the percentage of land or valuation of property which is exempt from taxation compared to their total assessment."

CARRIED

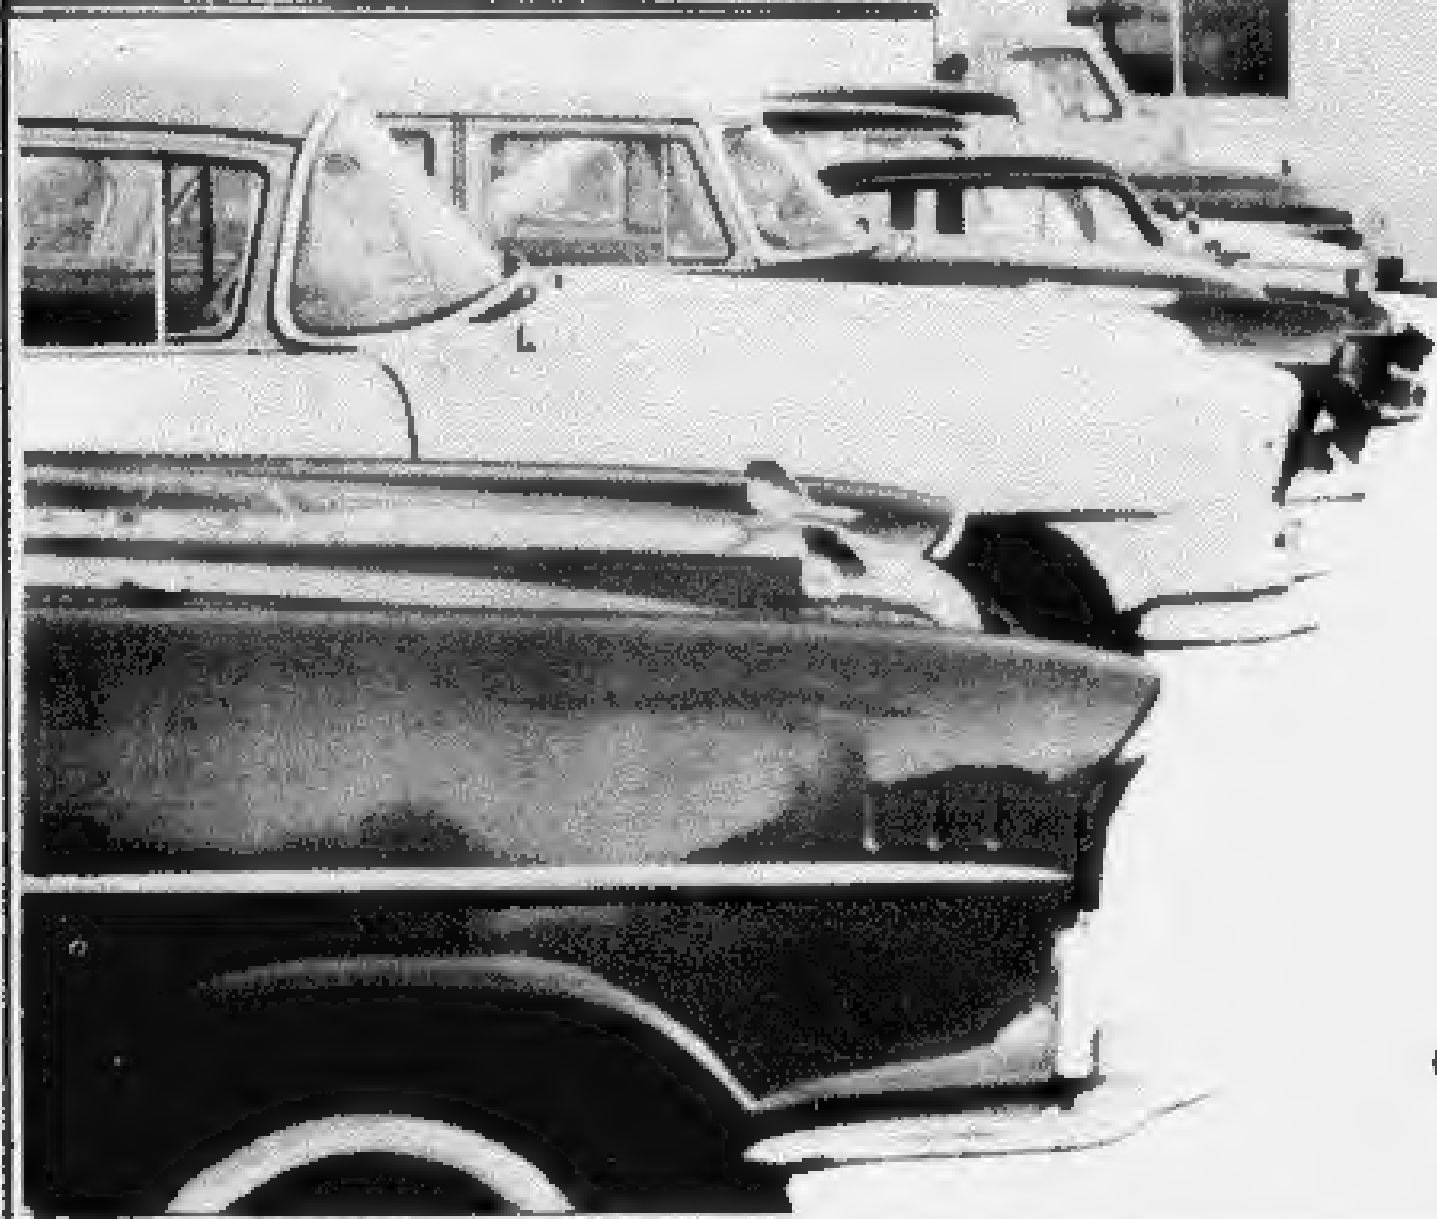

Attached is a schedule of comparison of Assessments - Alberta Towns - 1962 from towns who we asked for, or who of their own accord, forwarded to us copies of their financial statements. You will note that the percentage of exempt assessment for the Town of St. Albert is 22.09%. The average of all towns listed is 19.44%.

SPARTAN CAR SALESAuto Marine*Acceptance Corporation Ltd.*PUBLIC NOTICE

It is the intention of the Town of St. Albert to re-subdivide, by means of a replotting scheme, certain properties backing onto the Sturgeon River, between Highway No. 2 and St. Alphonse Street. This scheme would involve the closing of St. Alphonse Street and would create a 15 foot walkway from Mission Avenue to the river, and a park strip of approximately 20 feet along the river throughout the land being re-subdivided.

The owners of the properties concerned have approved the proposed replotting scheme, however, it is felt that the proposal should be advertised so that any persons who might wish to object to the proposal may have the opportunity to do so.

Any objections should be made in writing and should be mailed or delivered so as to be in the Town Hall by 12:00 Noon, on Thursday, October 31st, 1963.

FROM THE TOWN BRASS

Councillor Stewart stressed that these duplexes blend with the surrounding houses architecturally.

- Tenders for town equipment was referred to the Financial and Public Works Committee for their advice if the necessary funds are available.
- The vacant position of Town Engineer will be advertised as soon as possible.
- The subdivision of 3 lots on Gladstone Cres. was approved by Council.
- There was a long dispute regarding a cut-down of 12 feet at the back of 38 and 40 Gresham Blvd., which could be a hazard for children. This cut-down was caused by levelling of the parkland behind these two lots. The owners have petitioned to the Town to remove this hazard as soon as possible. All members of Council will inspect this place for consideration at the next meeting.

- The parking area for the new Administration Building of the Separate School Board will be paved by the Town and paid by the Separate School District.
- Council studied a report from Mr. Billings regarding the assessments of various towns in Alberta in comparison with the assessments in St. Albert. (Elsewhere in this issue you will find this complete report)
- The Borrowing Bylaw No. 48/63 for $195,000. was approved. This loan will be paid back out of Receivables on taxes. The loan will be used to meet current urgent expenditures.
- The vacancy in the Technical Advisory Committee (formerly Councillor Montpetit) was filled by Councillor Fowler.
- In the future, Mr. Jim Roberts, Development Officer for the Town, will attend all meetings where general town development is to be discussed.

Recreation Board Councillors Shrobot and Powell complained that the Recreation Board is discussing and arguing matters in which they're not concerned. Councillor Shrobot stated that he will resign from the Recreation Board if arguing over parkland in Grandin Park north of the Simpson School continues. He said the lawyers of both school board and the town have this case and we will have to wait for their advice on decision. Councillor Powell agreed with Dr. Shrobot that this talk should end. Council felt that the Recreation Board should be more active in positive planning of Recreational projects instead of arguing. An historic review of this parkland will be prepared by the Senior Administrative Officer for all councillors, this on request of Councillor Shrobot, who also asked that this report be published in the local newspaper for the general information of all our citizens.

- Council then went in to a Committee meeting as a whole, to discuss several matters.

- Due to Monday, November 11th being Remembrance Day, the next meeting of Council will be Tuesday, November 12.

The speaker will be Mrs. Donna Westendorf, Home Economist of Sturgeon County. Her topic will be 'A Guide to Better Buying Methods'.

The St. Mathews Anglican Ladies Guild recently held its regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. J. Baxendall. It was unanimously resolved that the guild be 'The Women's Auxiliary of St. Mathew's Anglican Church'. Rev. Dawkins chairman of the meeting, heard the resolution and Mrs. W. D. Neely, diocesan president of the W.A., welcomed the group on behalf of the diocese. Officers for the coming year are: president - Mrs. J. Taylor, Vice president Mrs. D. Thompson, secretary - Mrs. J. Raymond, treasurer - Mrs. J. MacNeill.

The Auxiliary's Bazaar recently held in the Hudson's Bay Auditorium was very successful. The Auxiliary would like to thank everyone in the parish for their contributions to its success.

The Marguerite d'Youville Auxiliary held their Annual Fall Tea and Sale of Goods Sunday last in the Auditorium of the Youville Home. Seemingly everyone in St. Albert was there. The sale articles were beautiful and varied, moreover the prices were very moderate. Bargains galore for the early shoppers. The Tea was delicious as were the dainties. The hospitality of the Auxiliary and the Sisters was as homey as your own living room. Those who weren't able to attend really missed something. Be sure you don't fail to be there next year.

FAIRYLAND OF FASHION

by Joanne Peterson

Those of you who missed Fairyland of Fashion sponsored by the Father Lacombe Chapter I.O.D.E. did indeed miss a treat. It was a pleasant 2 hours in the attractive Bonaventure Motor Hotel.

The local models were professional in performance and the wee models added touches of humor. The organist, Miss Irene LaFranchise, capably accompanied each costume change with a fitting musical setting. Her pupil, Norbert Betcher, gave parents an insight to what can be accomplished musically by one so young. The clothing and hair styles from "tip to toe" were in one word superb! The outfits were becoming for the style conscious, and practical from Mother's view point. Romper Room's "Miss Marilyn" who thrilled the young of the audience by her mere presence gave commentary complete in detail.

The Bonaventure's St. Albert Day displayed the best in hospitality and good food. The local I.O.D.E. Chapter did an excellent job of organizing a big project.

THE ST. ALBERT ON STURGEON PLAYERS

Last week we promised to introduce you in turn to the casts of each of the three one-act plays we are presenting at Paul Kane School on November 22nd and 23rd.

"And he lined those ducks up."

'Johnny Dunn' is an Alberta "folk play" - not, as you may be disappointed to hear a soap opera! Nonetheless we hope our audience will be in a lather when watching it. Prof. Robert Gard, of the University of Wisconsin, came to Alberta several years ago on a commission for the Alberta government, to collect together the folk-lore of the province. He wrote a book about the tall and the true tales he had discovered, called Johnny Chinook. From this he created the play 'Johnny Dunn' - the story of a larger than life Albertan who has all the adventures of 50 men rolled into one. Robert Orchard, then head of Drama Dept. of the University of Alberta, adapted and rewrote the play, making it more exciting, theatrically, and it is this version which will see on stage.

The part of Johnny Dunn is played by Al

By Wayne Channey, Patrol Leader of the 1st. St. Albert Scout Troop.

THE TRIP OF A LIFETIME !!

Our Scoutmaster, Mr. Rapati, was taking his holidays in the Yukon Territories this year and he invited some of his Scouts to accompany him. On Saturday morning, August 17, Eugene Blais, Greg Finnigan, Paul Rapati and myself started our long journey with Mr. Rapati. At Whitecourt we stopped to pick up Tommy Atcheson who was visiting his aunt.

After picking up some groceries, we had lunch at a nearby camp site. Before eating, we all went down to a stream near the camp. Paul somehow managed to fall in and had wet feet for the rest of the day.

We reached Grande Prairie at five. We stopped for groceries and had supper shortly after.

After supper, we went to open the car trunk but couldn't find the key. After searching everywhere we decided the key must have been locked inside the trunk. We quickly drove to a garage at Dawson Creek. The missing key was recovered and the garage man donated his services because we were Scouts!

We wrote post cards to send home and then drove off to pitch our tent at the Dawson Creek Camp Grounds. Because it was our first night, we didn't settle down till 1:00 a.m. We got up early and went to Mass.

After Mass, we went to the middle of the city where there was a tall, four-sided structure, painted white, on which was painted "Mile 0". This was officially the starting point of the "Alaska Highway".

Not far from Dawson Creek, we crossed the Taylor Bridge over the Peace River. On our way across, we noticed an oil pipe line across the river going through a nearby mountain. The rivers view was lovely and we got our first impression of the mountains. We stopped for breakfast and were soon off again.

All of us went in the Sikanni River to wade in the ice cold water and pan for gold. We nearly killed ourselves trying, but none of us went away rich!

Near Trutch we stopped at an undescrivable cliff, resembling a canyon, which dropped 3,000 feet or more. In the valley below there were lakes and trees all over. It was really something to see!

At Trutch we stopped at the Trading Post, which handled Indian made goods.

On our way to Fort Nelson the car hit a huge hole in the road and our carrier fell off. We picked up all the luggage, fixed the carrier, and kept on going. After a quick supper, we reached Fort Nelson and camped at the ball park. It was isolated and very quiet and spooky.

We stopped at a mountain spring for breakfast. The water was clear, cold, and refreshing.

Further on we spotted a waterfall. It wasn't long before we were at the top trying to find its source. Our curiosity satisfied we went to the car - for our next stop was the Liard Hot Springs.

At the Hot Springs everyone hurried to get in, but we soon found out it was hotter than we thought! There is no word that can describe how hot the water felt and the odor of sulphur was really powerful!

On reaching Lower Post, Yukon Territories, we found that this was one of the oldest settlements in the Yukon. Most of the buildings were built of logs, even the cafe which was modern inside.

We passed through Watson Lake and camped just north of the town. After stuffing ourselves, we went to bed. Mr. Rapati pulled us out of bed at 4:30 Yukon time.

On our way out, after breakfast, we saw millions of signs put up by tourists, with their names, addresses and states, hanging from telephone poles and other signs. There was someone representing every state in America, even Hawaii.

We reached Cassiar at noon and went to see Mr. Rapati's former boss, Mr. Barry (who is in charge of the Cassiar Asbestos Corp.). He suggested a tour of the mill that day, then mountain climbing on Wednesday, and a tour of the mine on Thursday. Mr. Barry also gave us three rooms in one of the bunkhouses to sleep in, and free meals at the dining hall.

Mr. Cam Church then gave us a permit for the mine and mill. He then took us on the tour of the mill personally. It was sure interesting to see how they separated the rocks and waste from the asbestos, and how the asbestos was dried and graded. We all went to the lab and got a sample box of asbestos with a sample of each grade in it.

A short hike around town was taken before supper. The meals at the dining hall were really good, and best of all we could have as much as we wanted! Just think - as much pie and dessert as we could eat!!!

I went to bed early and really enjoyed myself in that bunkhouse. We got up early and went to 8:00 Mass. Tommy and I served. Afterwards we had a good breakfast and dropped our clothes off at the laundry. Our clothes were pressed free of charge as a favor to Mr. Rapati.

We were now prepared to climb a nearby mountain which was supposed to be 10,000 feet high. It was a long and tiresome journey going up and we stopped for lunch halfway up.

The cook had packed us a delicious lunch - 4 tasty sandwiches each, 3 oranges, 1 apple, 1 piece of cake, and 3 pieces of apple pie!

Mr. Rapati spotted a bear on the way up but it disappeared quickly. It seemed like ages before we reached the top but the worst part was yet to come. We rested at the top and then started down a different way, half falling, half sliding. My pants were slightly worn when I reached the bottom.

We then had to travel along a river which resulted in bootfuls for everybody. All of us reached town exhausted and went to the bunkhouse to change.

After supper, we went to the game room for awhile. All of us then took in the movie "Lil Abner", which was pretty good, except for too much music in it.

In the morning, we had a hard time getting up, and as a result we were almost late for Mass. After Mass we invited Father Pouliet to eat with us and had a very nice breakfast. Breakfast over, we went to the office to pick up Mr. Church, who was taking us to the mine. While we were waiting in the lobby quite a number of men passed us, each of them stopping, recognizing Mr. Rapati and welcoming him back. Everyone knew him and were glad to see him. After getting us some special hard 'hats', Mr. Church took us through the mine. He showed us all the equipment, and then gave us asbestos rocks as souvenirs.

After lunch we went to get some tent pegs made, and returned to the bunkhouse. Mr. Rapati then told us we were to put on a play for the children of the town, at 3:00. The play consisted of sing songs, skits and movies, which lasted about two hours.

After supper Mr. Rapati and I went over to another friend's house, Mr. Fred Krebbs. He gave us a pop and some pastry and we had a very nice visit with him.

We made it on time for Mass the next day. Father Pouliet ate with us again. Our last meal was pancakes and I do mean pancakes! Nice, golden brown, light pancakes with syrup dripping down the sides. Man what a meal!! On our way out the cook gave us another of his delicious lunches.

We stopped at the office to thank Mr. Bronson, (who helped organize our program and tour) Mr. Church and Mr. Barry. Because of a leak in the gas tank, we really hurried to Watson Lake. It took the man three hours to fix the leak, during which we took an interesting movie of the garage owner, who had a black, bushy beard that was insured. Most of us bought souvenirs, ate our lunch and loafed around.

At six we stopped at the Hot Springs to eat andswim? We were off again by 8:30. That night we camped near a BA station and were on the road by eight the next morning, stopping at a creek for breakfast.

We reached Prophet River at 4:30. We had a good meal, although Paul took his time cooking it. Meanwhile Tommy was getting so hungry he started in on our dessert.

We were on the road soon singing songs to pass the time. Mr. Rapati also taught us three Dutch songs, which we enjoyed. At 10:00 everyone fell asleep except Mr. Rapati and Paul.

On reaching the camping grounds in Dawson Creek at midnight everyone was dead to the world and stumbled out of the car. We were in a daze when we set up the tent, and even when we crawled into bed. In the morning all of us slept in and missed the first Mass, but made it just in time for the second one.

After breakfast, we packed up and left, stopping for lunch at Smoky River. All afternoon was spent travelling until 9 at night. During this time Mr. Rapati told his fascinating stories. A stop for gas gave us time for a snack. It didn't seem long before we were in Edmonton and nearing St. Albert. At 10:00 Mr. Rapati drove up to my house and unloaded my gear.

We were all tired from the trip home, but we will never forget our experiences and the wonderful treatment given to us Scouts on our trip. Especially will we remember the people of Cassiar, who knew Mr. Rapati, and couldn't seem to do enough to give us a good time. It was a chance of a lifetime, and made possible for us because our Scoutmaster was willing to share his own holiday with some of his boys.

SEEING THROUGH ARITHMETIC

Initial planning has been completed by St. Albert No. 3 and St. Albert No. 6 School Districts to conduct a joint in-service education program for elementary school teachers centering around the SEEING THROUGH ARITHMETIC series of text books, and what has been termed the "new" or "modern" approach to mathematics. This program is planned as a follow-up to teacher institutes, study groups and seminars which have been held in previous years.

NEW BUSINESS ... SUPPORT THEM

St. Albert is still growing and expanding its businesses. It is a pleasure to see that in one week three specialized businesses are beginning. The announcement of the establishing of a $2 million industrial plant which will provide work for at least 20 families is welcome news. We in St. Albert should realize that the more business coming in, the lower the residential taxes. This means that we should support these businesses as much as possible.

One of the new businesses will be a flower shop for which we have waited a long time. We really hope that this special flower business will be supported by all of us as individuals and also by our many important organizations in town.

The new and used car business is also an important asset for our town. The owners of this business are well trained and experienced and can give you the service you want.

It will pay you to support these local dealers! We wish them well.

Mr. Ron Seward, graduate student and Supervisor of Elementary Instruction for Peace River School Division - on leave, has been engaged to act as consultant. Mr. Seward's extensive experience in teaching and supervising the SEEING THROUGH ARITHMETIC program will prove invaluable in bridging the gap which sometimes exists between theory and practice. This in-service education program will consist of one large-group meeting to provide an overview of the arithmetic program in the elementary grades - its purposes, its methods, and its problems, followed by a series of small-group discussion periods and demonstration lessons which will treat specific problems and methodology at specific grade levels.

FILM SOCIETY

The St. Albert Film Society will present its first showing Wednesday - 'Only Two Can Play', an hilarious English comedy starring the famed Peter Sellers. This showing will be held, as will all the films, at 8:30 p.m. in the Sir Alexander Mackenzie School. A film will be shown each alternate Wednesday. The next film will be 'Requiem for a Heavyweight' starring Anthony Quinn and Jackie Gleason, on November 13th. Then November 27 the Society will show 'The Prisoner' with Alex Guinness and Jack Hawkins. The admission to 'Only Two Can Play' will be $1.00, which includes membership in the Film Society. Admission to subsequent films will be 50¢. An Annual Membership ticket of $5.00 can be purchased initially. This would entitle the holder to the full season's program of 10 films. The intention of the St. Albert Film Society is to bring good films to St. Albert - both American and foreign. The entertainment this new organization will provide is immeasurable. The success of the venture depends greatly on immediate support. If you plan to attend any of the films do so the first night - tonight! Peter Sellers in 'Only Two Can Play' will not disappoint your sense of humor. This is British comedy at its riotous best.

For tickets or information call president Betsy Briggs 599-6878, Secretary Eleanor Wilson 599-7432, Treasurer Doug Ingle 599-7583 or publicity Esther Mathews 599-7655. Ron Walker production at 599-6940.

OPEN HOUSE

Western Canada's largest Catholic seminary, St. Joseph's, was host to more than 1,000 visitors at its open house over the weekend. The theme of the open house commemorated the 400th anniversary of the institution of secular seminaries by the Council of Trent in 1563.

Located on the southern outskirts of St. Albert, St. Joseph's trains candidates for the priesthood from all parts of Western Canada. The seminary, a modern quintuple-shaped structure, has accommodation for 120 students. At present 75 are studying in it.

Since its construction in 1957, it has produced 65 priests. Seven are to be ordained at the end of the current term. Saturday, Open House was chiefly for high school students, and Sunday, for the public at large. Seminarists guided visitors through the seminary decorated with displays depicting both the 400 year history of secular seminaries, and the history of St. Joseph's itself. A highlight of the displays was a 240 sq ft. mural painted by seminarists showing the development of clerical training from Christ and his twelve apostles, to the present day.

Most Rev. J. H. MacDonald, Roman Catholic Archbishop of Edmonton, spoke to the visitors at the benediction services ending the open house Sunday. He discussed the significance of the Council of Trent and the establishment of more seminaries. He also mentioned the present-day shortage of priests and called

Some of the visitors to the open house of St. Joseph's Seminary leave the institute after being shown aspects of seminarian life. In the foreground is a statue of St. Joseph holding the Child

Jesus. In the background, on the far side of the seminary, the theme of the open house, the 400th anniversary of the establishment of modern seminaries, is indicated.

A section of a 40 foot by 60 foot mural, painted by St. Joseph's seminarists for their open house, is shown here. The whole mural depicts the evolution of priestly training from the time of Christ to the present. This section, done by Garry Luini, represents the ordination of a priest by a bishop around 400 A.D. Other artists on the project were Bill Burns and Phil Shinduke.

for parents to be more diligent in nurturing priestly inclination in their children.

Although only a half-dozen years in St. Albert, St. Joseph's Seminary traces its beginning to 1927, when the late Most Rev. Henry O'Leary, Archbishop of Edmonton, converted an Oblate seminary into a secular seminary, and took in 66 students. This old seminary which was situated in central Edmonton was built as a rectory in 1894. It was used until St. Joseph's moved out to St. Albert. The first rector was Monsignor James McGuigan, now Cardinal McGuigan. The present rector, Msgr. Howard Griffin, was appointed in 1939.

Archbishop MacDonald officially opened in the fall of 1957, the new seminary, which features a spacious chapel, fifty feet in height, illuminated by intricately symbolic windows imported from France. The seminary proper is three stories high, with two wings for students and another wing for the residence of priests, and classrooms. It is complete with a library, gymnasium, reading room, recreation hall, workshop, two hockey rinks and 50 acres of wooded property. A convent, housing nuns who take care of the cooking, is attached.

The training program covers seven years, the first three emphasizing philosophy and languages, the last four theology. The seminarian's average day is balanced with prayer, study, sports and recreation. It starts at 5:30 a.m. and ends at 10 p.m. For cultural activities, the seminary has a drama society, debating society, as well as producing a periodical house magazine and a yearbook with a circulation of 2,000.

These and other facets of seminarian existence were brought out during the open house.

The seminary choir, under the direction of John Guyderwijk, presented a program of hymns and Gregorian Chant. The organist was John Rose. The co-ordinator of the event, which took almost a month's preparation, was seminarian Tom Cullen. Lunches were prepared and served by the Mater Christi Society and by the seminary cooks, Les Filles De Jesus.

PUBLIC SCHOOLBOARD

The St. Albert School District, like the other authorities in St. Albert has gone through the usual transition period of expanding. Several phases of the administration have changed since we closed the schools last June.

One major and predominant item is the increase in our student enrollment. This has increased by some 25% over the last school year. This is most indicative of our future development to an important community in the Edmonton metropolitan area. With the increase in the student population it follows that our teacher staff also had to increase. We now have 40 teachers looking after the needs of some 900 students in the various grades from I to XII. In addition to the regular academic subjects being offered, the students are given the opportunity to take Home Economics, Industrial Arts and a new phase, Business Education. It is the hope of the Board of Trustees and the Teachers that this varied program will enable our children to find more easily some mode of education which will assist them in finding a place where they may contribute more to their advancement and offer greater evolution to our society.

With this desire in mind the Board has instituted the office of superintendent and appointed Mr. Vincent J. Maloney to this position. Mr. Maloney has been with the School system in this area for some 12 years and he certainly has become familiar with the problems of local administration. The Board is quite certain that he will continue to give unselfishly of his time, knowledge and ability to create better educational conditions in St. Albert School District No. 3 and to encourage the advancement of St. Albert in general.

To assist our students further the Board is prepared to offer some assistance to families whose children may wish to follow a vocational training program at such centers as St. Joseph's High School in Edmonton.

With the promotion of Mr. Maloney, a vacancy was created in the principalship of Vital Grandin School. After reviewing several applications, many from our own staff members, the appointment was given to Mr. Lloyd E. Deutscher. Mr. Deutscher is a resident of our community, and we trust that he too will add to the advancement of our town. He will be assisted by Mr. Raboud, as Vice Principal, together with Miss Wolniewicz who continues to fill the office of assistant Principal at the Fr. Jan School. With the inauguration of business education at the High School under Mr. Kambeitz, more responsibility is placed on the shoulders of our Principal, Mr. Soprovich and his assistant, Mr. Kalita. These men are looked to for the continuation of an improved program at this level. Many other matters have transpired since June 30. As most parents are now aware, the Home Economics and Industrial Arts rooms are now located in Vital Grandin School. This was an expected change with the growth of student population and it caused the removal of our administration office from this building while the Secretary Treasurer was able to keep very close control over the operation of the Vital Grandin building during the time he was occupying this accommodation it was a known fact that eventually the move would have to be made. Plans were prepared and blue prints and specifications drawn for a building to house the administration offices and the maintenance workshop. The site selected for this building is quite historic as it was the site of the original school very often referred to as "The Brick School". This building should be ready for occupancy before the end of the current year.

Some remodelling is being done to the High School to make room for additional students.

Considerable time has been spent by the Board over the site for new school buildings. Negotiations are underway for location in Grandin Park, Braeside and Mission Park subdivision.

Work will commence on the grounds at Vital Grandin School in Sturgeon Heights very soon and some fencing will be installed along the northerly boundary. The recent election resulted in a change in the personnel of the Board of Trustees. Mrs. Sara Ross and Dr. Walter Mirlin will be replacing Mr. Hebert and Mr. Schlereth. A vote of thanks is extended to the two retiring members for the endless hours of service offered to this District during the past three years. A welcome to the new appointees is extended by all concerned. We feel sure that they will soon be able to assume the obligations involved and assist in the continuing the very important work which befalls School Trustees.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

The first meeting of the St. Albert Presbyterian Ladies Group will be held Monday evening, November 4, 8:15 p.m. at the home of Mrs. G. Peterson, 1 Swallow Crescent. A cordial welcome to all ladies interested.

The Sacrament of Baptism was administered to Ian William Hostler, son of Mr. & Mrs. Jack Hostler on Sunday October 27. Divine worship will be conducted next Sunday, November 3, by the Rev. Fraser Dunbar, assistant Minister of First Presbyterian Church. Organist is Mrs. W. Fraser.

The Young People's Society and Senior High Fellowship of Westmount Presbyterian Church have extended an invitation to all young people of this age group in the Edmonton Presbytery to attend a meeting at Westmount Church next Sunday, Nov 3 at 7:30 p.m. The special speaker will be Mr. Fred Caloran, National Secretary for the Student Christian Movement in Canada. Mr. Caloran is a graduate of Knox College, Toronto, and has recently returned from France. This promises to be a very interesting meeting, and any young people who plan on attending are asked to phone Miss Margaret Ironmonger at GL 5-4835.

We acknowledge with gratitude the gift of 24 Books of Praise from the Kirk Session of Westmount Church.
